Order No. 07 Dated 21st January, 2013

Today matter has been placed before us in view of the direction issued by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in order dated 21.08.2012 and subsequent order passed on 24.09.2012.

It appears from the order dated 21.08.2012 passed in Special Leave to Appeal (Civil) Nos. 12035, 12038 and 12047 of 2005 that a prayer was made for depositing the amount of Rs. 1,33,29,351.37 in a fixed deposit account in nationalized bank for which counsel for Union of India had no objection. On 24.09.2012 when the matter was taken up by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, it was pointed out by the respondents that respondents have not been paid the compensation amount, which is the subject matter of the dispute in the Special Leave Petitions and atleast interest amount that may have accrue on the fixed deposit be paid to the respondents from time to time. Then Hon'ble Supreme Court directed the Registrar of the Jharkhand High Court to transfer the fixed deposit to the concerned executing court and the concerned executing court will ensure that the interest that has accrued in the fixed deposit is paid to the concerned respondents. The matter has been listed before us for appropriate order.

Since the Hon'ble Supreme Court has directed the Registrar of the Jharkhand High Court to transfer the fixed deposit to the concerned executing court and also directed the concerned executing court to ensure that the interest that has accrued in the fixed deposit is paid to the concerned respondents, therefore, the Registrar General is directed to comply with the order without any delay and also directed to send the copies of the orders dated 21.08.2012 and 24.09.2012 to the concerned executing court with direction to comply with the direction given by the Hon'ble Supreme Court without any delay.
